Blog: NYSE American Proposes Rule Changes To Accelerate Delisting Of

Low-Priced Securities

The regulatory environment for small-cap and micro-cap issuers listed on national securities exchanges is undergoing its most significant structural realignment since the enactment of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act. For decades, the NYSE American LLC (the “Exchange” or “NYSE American”) has positioned itself as the premier venue for growth companies, offering a sophisticated regulatory environment with quantitative thresholds traditionally more accessible than those of the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”) or the Nasdaq Global Market. However, a recent series of proposed rule changes, culminating in the significant amendments to Section 1003 of the NYSE American Company Guide (the “Company Guide”) and subsequent filings, signals a decisive shift toward the mandatory removal of thinly capitalized and low-priced issuers. For a tally of recent NYSE American rule changes see HERE.

Update: Capital Markets

The new SEC proposed rule changes, including semi-annual reporting, extended S-3 availability and a complete reworking of filer size categories (and accompanying deferral of Sarbanes Oxley compliance) truly represent the most significant SEC restructuring of going public transactions, follow-on offerings, and ongoing periodic reporting compliance, in over two decades. Let US know if you ever have any questions and we can jump on a quick conference call to discuss the new groundbreaking pending rules. To schedule a meeting with an attorney, please Click HERE.
