Blog: SEC Proposes Regulation E-Delivery: Modernizing Capital

Markets Communications

On July 16, 2026, the SEC published proposed Regulation E-Delivery (“Reg E-Delivery”) to expand the ability of issuers, market intermediaries, and others to use electronic delivery to satisfy requirements to deliver regulatory information, including proxy statements and prospectuses, under the federal securities laws. This sweeping rulemaking would shift the default mechanism for regulatory disclosures from traditional paper mailing to electronic delivery across federal securities laws.

Update: Capital Markets

The new SEC proposed rule changes, including semi-annual reporting, extended S-3 availability and a complete reworking of filer size categories (and accompanying deferral of Sarbanes Oxley compliance) truly represent the most significant SEC restructuring of going public transactions, follow-on offerings, and ongoing periodic reporting compliance, in over two decades. Let US know if you ever have any questions and we can jump on a quick conference call to discuss the new groundbreaking pending rules. To schedule a meeting with an attorney, please Click HERE.
