Guest Blog: Prepared by Crocker Coulson, AUM Advisors: Three Paths To A US Listing

This guide is written for the management teams and boards of companies outside the United States that are considering a US listing — and who want a clear, evidence-based understanding of the three ways to get there before the pitch meetings begin. If your company is weighing a US listing, you will hear from underwriters that the traditional IPO is the gold standard. You will hear from SPAC sponsors that a merger is faster and more certain. You may hear from advisors that a direct listing minimizes the fees and dilution associated with either an IPO or a de-SPAC.
